In Text Citations

There are two main ways to reference a source in-text depending on whether or not you use a signal phrase including the author's name. The following examples show the four major ways of citing in text.

Summarizing or Paraphrasing

1. Florin & Esmond (2001) analyze the writing habits of college students.
2. Writing is problematic for college students (Florin & Esmond, 2001).

With a Direct Quote

3. The authors note "students deplore writing without a page limit" (Rath & Ashton, 2019, p. 648).
4. Rath and Ashton (2019) argue "students greatly dislike writing without a page limit" (p. 648).
