Dear Logan Rath,

The University-wide advisory committee for Distinguished Librarian plays an important role in the promotion of select faculty to this prestigious rank.

The advisory council for Distinguished Librarian will meet virtually in the fall and spring to review candidates' nomination portfolios, and make recommendations to the State University Provost. We expect to have at least one application this year.

Your background and expertise would make you a fine addition to the committee, and I hope you will agree to serve.

If you have questions, please let me know.

Ann Hawkins
