Dear Mr. Rath,

My name is Fatima Lundy. I'm from Professor Norcia's Career Prep class. I was one of the people who didn't know what to do in terms of a career, and I was concentrating on creative writing. I'm just writing to say thank you so much for your excellent presentation Wednesday, It was really insightful. I never realized how important business stalking was. When you discussed diversity in companies, it really hit home because diversity was one of the main reasons why I chose to attend Brockport. We had a little discussion after class about my career choice; I really appreciate you taking time to explain "The Onion" to me and your advice about my path as a creative writing major. I would love to hear more about your career as a Librarian and more about library school and what it entails. If possible, could we schedule a meeting to discuss more?

Sincerely,

Fatima Lundy
